NOTIFICATION.

No. 36. The 29th April 1875.

In publishing for general information the following Notification which has been issued by the Government of India with reference to the lamented death of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble Henry Vere Hobart, Lord Hobart, Governor of Madras, the Officiating Chief Commissioner directs that the flags at Government-House and the Public Offices be lowered to half-mast high, and continue so till sunset.

The Officer Commanding the Station will be requested to arrange for the firing of seventeen minute-guns by the Artillery in Garrison, at noon this day, as a special tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased nobleman, whose constant efforts to promote the happiness and prosperity of the people committed to his charge were widely known and highly appreciated in the Provinces of Mysore and Coorg.

"By Order,"

T. CLARKE,
Offg. Secretary.

Simla, the 29th April 1875.

The Governor General in Council has received from Madras, with the deepest regret, the melancholy intelligence of the death, on the 27th instant, of His Excellency the Right Hon'ble Vere Henry Hobart, Lord Hobart, the Governor of that Presidency. As a mark of respect for the memory of this most eminent Public Servant, the Governor General in Council has directed that seventeen minute-guns be fired from the ramparts of Fort William at noon today, and that the Fort flag be lowered to half-mast high.
